- Parent/Guardian/Student assumes full responsibility. No liability or responsibility is assumed by Peninsula Ballet Theatre for any reason while student is on the premises. Peninsula Ballet Theatre cannot be held responsible for the student's welfare once class has adjourned.
- Student must provide their own lunch. Lunches must be non perishable, not requiring refrigeration or heating. Lunches may not contain nuts.
- I agree that if I am more than 15 minutes late to pick up my child, there will be a $25 fee for every 15 minutes thereafter.
- I understand that this camp costs $275 ($50 registration fee and $225 camp fee). Fee if for the entire five days and cannot be prorated should my child attend less than 5 days.
- Terms of payment and Refund policy - $50 non-refundable fee is required to hold your spot. Final payment is due no later than March 4. If student cancels registration prior to March 4, fees, less $50, will be refunded. If student cancels registration after March 4, there will be no refunds. Failure to make payment in full by March 4 could result in losing your place at camp. If student is waitlisted, all fees will be refunded if student does not get accepted into camp. All cancellations must be made in writing.

Students are accepted into camp in the order their registration is received. You will be notified of student's position in camp (accepted, or on the wait list). This notice will be made by email.
